

The high water would cause shoreline erosion which would decrease water quality by pulling sediment into the lake.

These three pictures
are of roads around sturgeon lake that have been impacted by flooding

2008